

Program Name: SFWMD Outreach Program
Project Name: Outreach
Project ID: 3503
Lead Agency: SFWMD

Strategic Plan Goal(s) Addressed: 3-A.3 Increase community understanding of ecosystem restoration

Measurable Output(s): Public and Stakeholder Meetings; School and Teacher Education; Symposiums; Media Exposure; Ecosystem Groundbreakings and Ribbon Cuttings; Special Events; Awards and Recognitions; Everglades Photos and Video Clips; Speakers' Bureau Presentations; Offsite briefings; Community Events; Updated External Web Site including Comprehensive Ecosystem Restoration Web Site Pages with Multimedia; Fact Sheet development and Distribution; Ecosystem Workshops for International Students, Scientists, Government Leaders with Onsite Staff Instruction by Scientists and Engineers, including field visits.

Project Synopsis: The South Florida Water Management District continues to participate with the USACE, and other agencies/major stakeholders and general public in various outreach activities, as listed above, to increase the understanding of ecosystem restoration.

Total Estimated Project Cost: Ongoing

Project Schedule:

Start Date: Ongoing
Finish Date: Ongoing

Actual Expenditures to Date by SFWMD:

2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	Total to Date
431,190	417,334	680,871	247,300	224,466	83,799	75,825	74,113	112,786	107,254	72,750	2,527,688

Educating students about Everglades restoration in the field generates an understanding of Florida's ecosystems and an eagerness to become a

Public ceremonies are examples of outreach events that SFWMD Outreach staff conducts as project thresholds are reached and commemorated.