

Goal 3: Foster Compatibility of the Built & Natural Systems

Subgoal 3-D Reduce Invasive Exotic Species Pathways Originating from the Built Environment.                      July 2012–June 2014
Objective	Projects	Status
Outreach and Education  Objective 3-D.1: Increase awareness of the impacts of invasive exotic species on the South Florida ecosystem, economy, cultural values and public health	Exotic Pet Amnesty Program
	Python Patrol Program
	Everglades freshwater fish monitoring - increase awareness of impacts. POC - Jeff Kline - ENP, Joel Trexler - FIU
	POC - ENP - Jeff Kline/Raul Urgelles, FWC - Kelly Gestring, other ECISMA partners  Obj - either 3-D.1, or just the science foundation. BNP Schaus swallowtail butterfly Habitat Enhancement, Jed Redwine (increase awareness of the impacts of invasive exotic species on SF environment, economy, cultural values and human health.

	ENP non-native fish roundup 3-D.1 Tony Pernas
Partnerships  Objective 3-D.2: Continue existing and develop new partnerships that focus on reducing pathways.	ECISMA—our vehicle for maintaining and developing partnerships
	Canal fish inventory and monitoring	